

An Rialálaí
Carthanas

Charities
Regulator

16 October, 2017

Charities Regulator's office to remain closed on 16 October

On foot of the status red wind warning in place, ahead of the expected arrival of Hurricane Ophelia, the offices of the Charities Regulator will remain closed on Monday, 16 October. The move is being taken in the interest of staff safety.

For more information: email press@charitiesregulator.ie or contact Eamon Timmins, Head of Communications and Stakeholder Engagement, at 087-7520978.